A SAD and thrilling accident occurred at St. Louis last Friday night. In returning from a ball a large party of happy young folks were aboard of a ferry, and as the boat was nearing the shore, a sudden jostle threw a beautiful young lady, named Anna Morrison, into the dark, deep waters of the river. Instantly a noble young man plunged into the water and caught the fair form in his arms, and struggled manfully to bear his precious burden to the shore. He called for a boat or plank, but none were within reach, and as the current was swift, and he was encumbered by heavy clothes and the skirts of the young lady, the roaring waters swept both further from the shore. His strength gave way, and the girl sunk to a watery grave, and he was thrown up insensible upon the shore. The brave young man's name is not given, but it should be, that the world might admire a noble nature which it were insult to praise.

DETROIT has another strange story. Three years ago the windows of one of its banks was broken, and several packages of money stolen therefrom. The thief escaped and no clue was ever obtained to secure his identity or arrest. In Cincinnati, a few days ago, a youth made his appearance "on a druak," giving his name as Charles Thompson. He entered a station house, and to a policeman revealed the fact, which had preyed upon his conscience, that he was the bank thief of Detroit. Next morning, duly sober, he reiterated his statement, and asked to be sent to Michigan for trial. He said he had stolen $4,000, all of which he had gone through in leading a fast life in Canada. With a guilty conscience, his life was purgatory, and he imagined everybody a policeman ready to arrest him, and gave himself up to prevent his going mad.

MISS CECILE RUSH, the talented histrionic artiste, has met with unparalelled success at the Olympic Theatre in St. Louis. On the occasion of her benefit, last Friday night, the audience was the largest and most brilliant ever assembled in that city, while hundreds were turned away from the doors unable to gain admittance. She was presented with a superb suite of diamonds as a token of the admiration of her genius by the citizens of St. Louis.

MRS. JAMES, of Chicago was about to be married, and received from an unknown source a glass jar containing the dead body of an infant preserved in alcohol. Mrs. James fainted. A note with the disgusting present read: "I am in search of P. Clark. Will my future stepmother tell me where to find him?" P. Clark was her affianced, but from whence the pickled babe was spirited and expressed from, is a Chicago mystery.

IN Philadelphia on Monday last a young man named John Hornby took up a gun and proceeded to illustrate to his sister how people shot themselves by carelessly handling fire arms. While doing this the gun was discharged and he was instantly killed. He was much too practical in his methods of teaching.

AN old lady of Columbus, afflicted with dropsy, recently underwent for the twenty-sixth time, the operation of removing the secreted fluid. This is a very remarkable case, as few stand the awful operation more than five or six times.

The restoration does not make the lands subject to sale at private entry, but only renders them accessible to actual settlers.

The Collectorship of the Boston Port—Maximilian.

NEW YORK, November 21.—The Commercial's Washington special says: Influential Bostonians are pressing Mayor Phinney, a peace democrat, for the Collectorship of that port, but the President does not give them encouragement.

The report that Maximilian is not allowed to leave Mexico by the French is not believed in Washington. General Grant believes, however, that he will embark before the end of December.

Maximillian Petitioned not to Abdicate—Official Conference—No Unity Among the Liberals—A Military Coup de Etat Foretold—A Surrender.

MEXICO, November 4.—Minestrotra has asked of the Ministry of the Treasury the necessary orders that the Custom House of Vera Cruz be delivered to Inspector Roland, by virtue of the Convention of June 30, but the Secretary, Lampos, replied that, as the said Convention had not been published in Mexico, and could not therefore, be a law of the State, he would apply to the Emperor for instruction.

The Patria asserts that a petition has been presented to the Emperor, signed by over a thousand Mexicans, not to abdicate.

NOVEMBER 5TH.—On Saturday the 3d inst., conferences between the Mexican Ministers and General Castelnau had commenced.

NOVEMBER 7TH.—Advices from Tampico state that at that place there was no security for the inhabitants, nor unity of command among the Liberals, who besides the loans imposed in August, have exacted others to the amount of $100,000 in September and October. It is decided that at the action at Miahantian the battalion of Chasseaurs deserted to the enemy, but some returned with and getting together again disbanded, leaving their officers behind them. Their Colonel, Estrand, mounted a cannon and with a few soldiers kept the field, having the garrisons of Tampico and the Empire; also that only 700 Austrian-Mexican troops fell at the ambuscade of La Cartonera, and one piece of artillery lost; and the gallantry of the forces after the action fell back to Huajerapam.

NOVEMBER 8th.—The Estefette advises the Emperor's abdication in an article which plainly foretells the consequence if he does not: a military coup de'etat.

NOVEMBER 9th.—The Estefette says: The Emperor was at Orizova, and would be in Orizaba shortly. The solution of the present anxious crisis was anon need for the next week. HAVANA, Nov. 17.—The French steamer La France, arrived here yesterday from Vera Cruz, bringing from the capital up to the 9th. The Emperor had not returned to the capital. It was still doubtful if he would abdicate or accede to the wishes and views of the conservative party. At several points the Liberals had obtained advantages, but in the majority of cases had been worsted. To this the French troops contributed, who are again in campaign and at the most exposed situations.

FROM ALBANY.

The Equal Rights Convention—Resolutions Adopted.

ALBANY, N. Y., November 21.—At the Equal Rights Convention, yesterday, after considerable debate from various speakers, Mrs. Emily Elizabeth Jones, from the Business Committee, presented the following resolutions:

Resolved, That if Liberty and the pursuit of happiness are the natural and inalienable rights, so is the right of suffrage their only possible security, and we hold that the distinction of rights into civil and political is without warrant and without foundation, and as a consequence of slavery and caste engendered by it.

Resolved, That we hold with Lamartine that universal suffrage is the first truth and only basis of every national republic, and, with Hon. Charles Sumner, that the ballot is the only guarantee of rights to the citizen, for which we are bound by every necessity, and every reason; the one thing needful to which all other things shall be given—protection, opportunity, homes and, and rights of every kind; nor do we inquire whether the declarations apply to men only, since women are compelled to obey the laws of, as well as, obedience to the Government.

WHEREAS, In the language of Hon. William Beach Lawrence, in his letter to Senator Sumner, the Anti-Coalition Convention of Virginia in the present Constitution, or laws for the State to prevent their being recognized and treated in all respects as equal members.

Resolved, That the present limitations of the franchise in the United States, to the class known as white male citizens, vests the government in a minority because it excludes in women one-half the American people, and in persons of color one-eighth, thus reducing five out of eight adult American citizens to permanent political inferiority, and our present State and national governments, thus limited to three-eighths of the adult citizens, are not, in fact, republican in form, but constitute an oligarchy, which is dangerous.

Resolved, That no ruling class ever did, ever will or ever can legislate wisely for a disfranchised class, and that the supremely legitimate human government is self-government; and universal suffrage is the only road to, and safeguard of, universal justice.

Resolved, That we respectfully ask the Legislature, in arranging the conditions for the Constitution Convention, to pass an enactment that there may be at least women elected as candidates at large to sit as members of the Convention, on the same conditions, with the same rights and powers of others, and that a copy of this said resolution No. 8 be furnished to each member of the Convention, at the opening of its session.

During the reading of the resolutions Frederick Douglass mounted the platform and was received with applause.

Mrs. Stanton said that she protested against the use of the name Democratic, and she also claimed that when the consummation which they had wished for was gained, it should not be regarded as a victory of one party or the other. Each had equally favored their views, and each equally dissented from them.

Mr. Douglass protested against the views of Mrs. Stanton. In Rhode Island the Democrats had opposed them, and he had no doubt it would be done again when party exigencies required it.

At the afternoon session speeches were made by Mrs. Stanton, Parker Pillsbury and Miss Bessie Bisbie. At the evening session the Convention was addressed by Virginia Brown, after which H. B. Blackwell offered a resolution that E. C. Stanton, Frederick Douglass, and Susan B. Anthony be a committee to present to the Legislature any project against the adoption of the proposed Constitutional amendment, and our declaration of rights, to be presented to the Convention equal terms with men as members of the Convention, to revise the Constitution of this State. The resolution was adopted.

The Convention, J. M. Austin, Esq., and Susan B. Anthony, Charles L. Remond, Mrs. E. C. Stanton, Mrs. Elizabeth Jones, Parker Pillsbury and Lucy Stone, after which it adjourned sine die.

Interview Between Lopez and Mitre—Hostilities to be Resumed.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The following interesting incident is related as preceding the attack on Fort Curupaity: On the 9th of September General Lopez sent the allied camp a flag of truce, which, by some mistake, was fired on. It was repeated next day, when a letter was given to General Mitre, Commander-in-Chief, proposing a personal conference between the two opposing chiefs. This was arranged for on the 12th of September. At a given hour and place the two Generals, each with an escort of Presidents, met, leaving each a retinue of about twenty officers a little distance apart. They dismounted, shook hands, and were in deep conference for two hours. They parted with no definite results as to peace. After separation General Mitre ordered a strong force to be prepared at once to attack Fort Curpuaity, and preparations of the most formidable character were made at once for this purpose. General Mitre is said to have spoken very highly of General Lopez, and was pleased in his manners. At parting they exchanged their gold-headed riding whips, in token of personal friendship.

Important Publisher's Suit.

U. E. Johnston, agent for the American Publishing Company, appeared before Alderman Hays, of Allegheny city, yesterday, and made oath against George Logenbeau, Wm. Cooper, W. Kendrick, John Swartz, James Kuch, J. M. Duff, and J. S. Frazier, for obtaining goods under false pretence. The circumstances of the case are as follows:

Some time since the defendants ordered a History of the Rebellion which Johnston was agent for. They received and paid for the first volume, but the second volume, which they had since received, they refused to pay for on the ground that it had not been sent them at the time agreed upon when subscribed for.

The accused are all residents of this county, living in the rural districts, and have leagued together for the purpose of testing the legality of the contract. The case, which is of unusual interest, is attracting considerable attention among publishers. A hearing will be had to-day.

Serious Accident.

Last evening at about eleven o'clock, a man, who utterly refused to give his name or residence, in passing along Robinson street, Allegheny, stepped upon the iron door of a vault. A physician was sent for, and ascertained that the gentleman had sustained a compound fracture of the arm, in addition to several severe bruises. The wounded man received proper attention, and he will recover.

Inquest in the Case of Frederick Miller —Accidental Death.

The jury empannelled by Coroner Clawson to investigate the causes of the death of Frederick Miller—who, as our readers will remember, died at the Western Pennsylvania Hospital on Saturday morning last—met last evening at the Mayor's office to conclude their labors The result of their investigations was as follows:

Dr. C. B. King, sworn—Deceased was brought to the Western Pennsylvania Hospital on Thursday of last week, suffering from the effects of a burn; both arms were badly burned, as was the right side of his head and one eye; he was almost pulseless, and was suffering from great pain in his breast, showing that the lungs were seriously injured; applied dressings to the wounds, and gave him stimulants; could not rally him, and he remained pulseless until Saturday morning when he died; the cause of his death, I think, was the shock to his system, resulting from the accident; he had evidently inhaled the flame, and injured his lungs seriously; could get no information from him as to the cause of the accident; made out from his statement that he was lighting the lamp, when the oil on the outside caught fire and exploded; he made me understand, too, that he was not filling the lamp while it was lighted.

John Zimmerly, sworn—Live in the same house that deceased did; went home and was told that the man was burned; found him lying on the lounge and went for the doctor. This was about seven o'clock on Wednesday evening; know nothing more about it, only I went with the man to the hospital to have him taken care of. I is was the next day; never saw the man with the lamp in his hand; was never in the man's room until that evening; know nothing of where the oil came from; don't think it was carbon oil, but be sure. When I went into the room that evening the walls were burnt, the glass war broken, the bed-clothes were burned; and the clothes on the deceased were burning; I helped to pull the deceased a coat after the accident. The deceased worked for the Eagle Bridge Company. Miller has been married, but kept "bachelor's hall."

Henry Bein, sworn—Lived in the same house with deceased and worked with him; went home with him after quitting work; after awhile I saw such a light in Miller's room, that I ran in; this was about half an hour after we got home. I heard the report of the explosion first, and thought it was a pistol; Miller had a little tin bucket with him that night as usual; am sure that he did not stop in his way home; when the explosion, he bucket was setting two or three feet from the lamp; saw no oil in the room after the accident, except a little floating on the water that had been thrown on the fire; don't think Miller took anything home in the bucket; my wife and I found the lamp in the room the night after the explosion, and found deceased laying on the floor; the room was full of flame; I caught deceased by the head and pulled him out; there is a lot of oil in the shop; he could have got his bucket full there; the lamp was one that was used at the shop; the name of the deceased was Frederick Miller.

This closed the testimony, and the jury, after some consideration, returned a verdict of accidental death.

Child Burned in the Eighth Ward.

About noon yesterday, a little daughter of Samuel Lewis, residing at No. 70 Locust street, Eighth ward, while playing around a bake oven in the rear of her home, was severely burned by her clothing catching fire from some cinders which her mother had swept out of the oven, but had failed to completely extinguish. As soon as she became aware of the ignition, the little one ran immediately to a rain barrel half filled with water, that occupied a position immediately in the rear, but instead of attempting to quench the flames by throwing some of the contents over her person with her hands. Despite her exertions, the clothing still continued to burn, and the flesh was scorched, attracted the attention of her aunt, Miss Lizzie Matthews, who ran to her assistance, and after some trouble in which her hands suffered considerably, she succeeded in rescuing her niece. Dr. Wilford and Dr. Bowe, the child's right arm, and a portion of her breast are badly burned, while her left hand is scorched to such an extent, as to cause her the most intense pain. Dr. Herron will be on the little sufferer and dressed her injuries.

Two More Unfortunates.

The brothers Diehl—William and Fredly—are exceedingly well known to any one who has devoted any attention at all to police reports. They spend the greater share of their time under the paternal care of Warden White, and seem in a state of discontent when out from under his supervision, for no sooner do they get out of jail than they seize the first opportunity of getting back. It is said that the attack was made by more than one person. Fortunately no one was hurt. This act is supposed to have been done by some of those who have been employed on the road between Oberlin and Elyria. No matter what cause those parties may have for enmity to Pollock, we can see no palliation to be given for such dastardly conduct, and any person caught so offending should be visited with the severest penalties of the law.

Big Afternoon's Work.—Mr. John S. Edgar, the gentlemanly and efficient weighmaster at the Diamond scales in Allegheny, had an afternoon's work on Tuesday afternoon, and therefore anything in its weigh that has occurred during his term. Aside from the feed and coal disposed of on that afternoon—and there were a great many quantities than usual—Mr Edgar weighed eighty-nine loads of hay. Mr. Edgar has done a good many jobs of good size since he has been weighmaster, but for any one afternoon, this job was the heaviest.

A Second Grand Concert.—Mr. S. R. Davies, the manager of the Master Coke Concerts Troupe, has consented, at the request of a number of citizens who are unable to attend this evening's concert, to give a second grand concert on to-morrow Friday evening. Tickets and seats to be had at Kleber & Bro's.

Death.

Over four hundred copies of Charles Reade's novel have already been sold by Mr. J. W. Pittock alone, and he has just ordered as many more. It is estimated that the story has been read by at least two thousand persons in this city. The sale of this book is unparalelled since Mrs. Stowe's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" absorbed the public mind so completely. We hear similar accounts from every city throughout the country. In New York it is the popular excitement; in Boston, it has been preached of in the pulpit. As a play it is proving a golden harvest to the managers who have brought it out. It has been most ably dramatized by Mr. Augustine Daly, author of "Leah, the Forsaken," and has been attracting immense crowds to the New York Theatre for two weeks past. The desire to see it placed upon the stage is gaining ground rapidly, and Manager Hess, of the Opera House, will soon gratify it, for we see he has finally arranged to present it on to-morrow evening.

Allegheny Temperance League.

A stated meeting of the Allegheny Temperance League was held in the First Methodist Protestant Church Tuesday evening. The attendance was very large, the auditorium of the church being crowded.

The meeting was called to order by Rev. Mr. Lynch, of South Common Methodist Episcopal Church, and was opened with prayer by Rev. E. A. Wheat, of Geneva, New York.

Rev Dr. Flood was then introduced, and delivered an able and appropriate address. He was followed by Rev. J. B. Walker and J. H. Hamilton. Both of these addresses were of an unusually entertaining character, and were listened to with great attention. On the conclusion of Rev. Mr. Hamilton's remarks, the pledge was circulated among the audience, and some seventeen signatures obtained.

The meeting then adjourned, the benediction being pronounced by Rev. J. Cowl, D. D.

Before U. S. Commissioner McCandless.

Yesterday morning a person calling himself Samuel McKeown, was before U. S. Commissioner S. C. McCandless, charged with passing a counterfeit ten dollar greenback. The information was made by Isaac Gebler, proprietor of a clothing store on Smithfield street Gebler alleged that on the 1st instant McKeown came to his medical attendant pronounces that he is in peril of tetanus, or lock-jaw, from the severe wound on the wrist. The cut in the back of the neck is much inflamed, and is exceedingly painful and may be considered serious.

Brisk.—Mayor Morrison, of Allegheny, is doing much busier business than of old in the way of disposing of the hard cases of our sister city. On Tuesday he committed to jail, for terms varying in length, no less than seven disturbers. If such vigorous stirring up is persevered in the good effects of the course will make themselves distinctly felt. Among the parties committed was John Harkins, whom we reported yesterday as having been sent to jail to await his trial for fraud.

No Cutting or Probing about the Ears.—Dr. Adams, at the Merchant's Hotel, does not subject his patients to cutting, probing, or any painful operation in order to restore the hearing—his method is perfectly harmless and unaccompanied by pain. Well known and prominent citizens referred to, whom he has operated upon and cured. His sojourn for this visit will terminate on Monday next.

Sent to Jail.—Samuel Mercer, the man whom we mentioned on Tuesday as being confined in the Allegheny tombs in a severe delirium tremens potu, recovered during the day to a great extent from the severity of the attack, and was sent to jail yesterday morning by Mayor Morrison, for a period of twenty-one days on a charge of drunkenness. A brief retirement is good for such cases.

Larceny as Bailee.—Messrs. Armstrong, Brother & Co., had in their employ as clerk, a young man named Chas. Stoer. Some days ago the proprietors left in his keeping $5, and when it was called for the money was not forthcoming. D. D. Armstrong, one of the firm, made information before Alderman Strain, charging Storer with larceny as bailee. A warrant was issued.

Gallagher vs. Gallagher.—Bridget Gallagher made an information before Alderman Strain yesterday, charging Rose Gallagher with surety of the peace. After a long argument, each woman conducting her own case volubly, the charge was dismissed on the payment of the costs by the defendant.

Methodist Protestant Conference.

SEVENTH DAY.

The Convention re-convened yesterday morning at half past nine o'clock, Rev. Scott in the chair. Religious services were then conducted by Rev. G. M. Scott, after which the minutes of the preceding session were read and on motion approved.

Rev. M. V. B. Evans, Chairman of the Committee on Boundaries, submitted a report. The report was recommitted, with instructions to report a perfect list of all Conference Districts, with their respective boundaries, together with boundaries of all new districts to be formed, and that all territory in the United States be embraced within the limits of some district.

The Convention then resumed the consideration of the Constitution, before the Convention at the hour of adjournment yesterday afternoon.

Articles seven, eight and nine were then read and adopted.

On motion the business before the Convention was laid on the table, to allow a vote to be taken on the question to reconsider the resolution prohibiting Committees from retiring.

On the question being taken the vote adopting the resolution was reconsidered, and it was laid on the table.

The Board of Trustees of the Endowment Fund were then granted leave of absence.

Leave of absence was also granted to Messrs. Carrollton, Manly and Southard.

The consideration of the Constitution was then resumed, and the remaining articles read and adopted without amendment.

On motion, Rev. T. B. Graham was requested to act as temporary Secretary.

The Book of Discipline prepared for the Methodist Protestant Church was called up and read. The first, second and third articles were adopted. The fourth article was then read, and, on motion, the question was divided, and the fourth article each separate section. The article was then adop

TO YEARLY ADVERTISERS.

Owing to the large amount of advertising patronage with which we are favored, and for which we are duly thankful, and the increase of our circulation, altogether beyond our present means to supply as promptly as we ought, we find it generally inconvenient, and sometimes quite impossible, to insert changes for yearly advertisers, unless left at our counting-room before seven o'clock in the evening.

THE NEW DEPARTURE.

It is now manifest that the bold proposition of the Chicago Times was made upon pre-concert, and is likely to lead to important results. The National Intelligencer virtually gives in its adhesion, and several Southern gentlemen, distinguished in the rebel ranks, have extended to it their powerful approbation. It becomes, therefore, important to consider what inducements exists on the Democratic or rebel side to concurrence in this new departure, and what consequences may be expected to flow from it.

The elections, just held, have convinced the most incredulous that the Seceding States will be restored only upon conditions. The ballot-boxes have swept into the recepticles of rubbish all the legal subtieties designed to show that those States are not, and never were, out of the Union, and that when the cessation of actual conflict all their original rights and immunities reverted to them. The high Court of the People have decided differently, and from that decision on all appeals are nugatory.

2. It naturally follows that the rebels want to obtain the easiest conditions possible for themselves, while the northern sympathizers want terms upon which they can build hopes for the future. By the Constitutional amendment, now pending, the most active and potential spirits throughout the South are incapacitated from holding office under the General Government. This would shelve all the Democratic leaders of any conspicuity. By the amendment, moreover, representation in the General Government is made ratable, not to population, but to voters. The clear intention is to make all ballots cast at a particular election have equal weight. The Democrats do not want to lose their leaders at the South, nor do those leaders want to be lost; nor yet do the Democrats want to have representation in Congress and the Electoral Colleges diminished for States which belong to them by past instincts and memories, as well as by hopes of future avenges. If universal amnesty can be exchanged for universal suffrage, the only chance of covering these points will be obtained.

3. If this plan shall work, it will then remain to determine whether the black voters will fall under the influence of their old masters, or will be mainly swayed by new men. As we look at the case, the chances are eagerly in favor of the old masters. They are experts in political management, and know when to yield gracefully as well as when to press an advantage to the uttermost. It would be a benefit to the blacks to have their white neighbors thus dependent on their good will. At once they would come under the positive protection of powerful classes, and in many counties and districts, being more numerous than the whites, would soon acquire the dexterity and the will to make their own terms.

4. Soon after the President set up as a Dictator, and commenced his crusade against the Representative Bodies, the proposition that Universal Amnesty be granted as an equivalent for Universal Suffrage was made by a Senator holding such relations to him as to warrant the conjecture that the inspiration came from the White House. This proposition was concurred in by all who magnify the reformatory power of lenity; by all in whom the desire to have justice done the blacks was stronger than the wish to retaliate upon the rebels; and by all who wanted a speedy settlement of the great dispute independent of the conditions upon which it should be accomplished. It was then doubtful how the popular judgment would incline. It may be some who inclined to that solution then, and as the case stood, will not renew their assent now. They may claim, both the exclusion of the rebel leaders from office and the enfranchisement of the blacks. Certainly, if the elections have decided anything, it is that the rebel leaders shall take back seats.

—The discussion of the coming sixty days will throw much light upon this whole subject. Not a little will depend upon the attitude of Southern opinion. If it shall remain bitter and defiant, the exclusion of the Southern leaders will be insisted and will be carried. If the enfranchisement of the blacks shall be accepted and decreed, so important a matter will hardly be left to the independent action of the respective States, which would be reversible at pleasure after the end sought by it had been attained. An amendment to the Federal Constitution defining the right and limitatations of voting in all the States, and giving Congress full power to legislate thereupon, would be the only effective and conclusive measure. A truly republican basis would thus be laid for the government, and the national discord would be healed in the redeeming of a flagrant wing.

How far the men who manage the Democratic party succeed in inducing their followers, particularly in the cities and large towns, to accept their new teachings is at least open to conjecture. They have an unpropitious man to handle when the appeal is on the score of natural justice and principles of humanity. After the kindest and most virulent passions have been submitted too for many years, not only by indulgence, but by the most unscrupulous appeals, it is a momentous task even to hold them in check, much more to extirpate them so thoroughly as to give reason a chance to be heard, and pure and generous impulses opportunity to operate.

EUROPE.

The announcement recently made to the effect that the Emperor NAPOLEON was negotiating a reconciliation of the Greek Church with the Romans, is confirmed. The basis of this negotiation seems to be the Patriarch shall acknowledge the precedence of the POPE, and the POPE in return shall sanction the marriage of the Greek clergy, if not as a permanent order, at least as temporary.

The natural rejoinder to this on the part of Russia appears in the form of an alliance with Prussia, the most aggressive as well as the most powerful of the Protestant nations on the continent.

While indications exist of the intention of the POPE, upon the occupation of his States by the forces of the Italian monarchy, to retire to Malta, or Jerusalem, or some other convenient point, there are auguries that powerful sections of the clergy have changed their views, and fallen in sympathy with the movement for the Italian nationality. No other construction can be put upon the zealous participation of the Venitian clergy in the grand ceremonies attending the formal consolidation of that province with the kingdom of Victor Emmanuel.

COLLEGES.

A strong tendency has been developed of late years, to lessen the strictures of the rule obtaining in the higher seminaries of learning which held pupils rigidly to the classic and mathematical course of studies. In many of the colleges of this country equivalent courses have been instituted in modern languages and the natural sciences; and the movement in that direct rather accelerates than diminishes. While it is still admitted that the chief end of this preliminary work is mental discipline, the fact is seen with increasing clearness that the discipline may just as well be acquired in those departments of knowledge which will come into practical play in all after life.

When the Benedictine monks—to whom we think the world owes more thanks in connection with this matter than to any other class of men—established the course of collegiate instruction—which has since generally prevailed, there was no literature indigenuous to the vernacular tongues. Indeed, those tongues did not, till a long time after wards, attain so fair a degree of perfection as to be the suitable media of high literary performances. Latin was the language in which law, physic, divinity, literature and diplomacy were written in all the European nations. The natural sciences scarcely had an existence. Alchemy had not then blossomed into chemistry, nor astrology into astronomy. The vast realm of geology was an undiscovered land. Now, the English classics are incomparably superior both to the Greek and Latin The vernacular language all over the civilized world contain all that is most valuable in science, art and literature. The domain of science has been marvellously enlarged, and many men are versed in them who know little or nothing of Greek or Latin. They never read Virgil or Homer, but they have read the great volume of nature written by God himself, and can interpret it to mankind for the advancement of the race in all the practical concerns of life. In the number and value of the ideas possessed they are richer than a wise linguist with all forms of speech at his command.

It is this consideration that is leading to the modification of the old college course, and with great advantage to the progress of sound learning. Herein consists the superior excellence of West Point Military Academy as a training school for most practical employment. The theory there is not that what is called classic learning is valueless, but that by the enlargement of the realm of knowledge, its relative importance has been diminished.

—The cost of living in New York at the present time is almost incredible, and it is astonishing where the money comes from to support such extravagance. Furnished houses in fashionable avenues rent for $1,000 per month. A family living at one of the large hotels pays $700 per week for rooms and board. The average price for large rooms and board in the principal hotels can not be had for less than $150 per week for man and wife.

—There is a prospect of serious conflict between the journeymen printers of Chicago and the proprietors of the various newspaper offices. The Typographical Union are about to demand a further advance in the rates of composition, and have also passed a resolution to make nine hours a day's work. On Saturday twenty-eight proprietors, including all of the daily papers except one, signed a written agreement to refuse both demands.

—An Austrian chemist, M. Leinelbrock, has discovered a way of enclosing electricity in small glass capsules, which will expode under the slightest shock. The capsule is enclosed in a steel cone, so that if shot from a rifle it will enter the flesh, and the explosion which follows is sufficient to kill a man. Experiments have been made on oxen and horses with perfect success, these animals having fallen down as if struck with lightning.

—Phad. Stevens was lately presented with a handsome umbrella, which was shortly afterward borrowed without leave. The great Commoner was soon caught in a shower, and, meeting a friend with an umbrella, asked the privilege of sharing part of it on the way home. The request was cheerfully granted, but the two had not proceeded far when Mr. Stevens cast his eye upward and saw his name in full. "Why, bless me," said he, I believe I am in my own house, after all." The umbrella was returned.

—The wife of Henry Setin, of Dixon, Iowa whose family has been troubled with an eruption of the skin, in preparing a prescribed ointment mixed a package of arsenic for sulpour, and made a mixture composed of that poison. The deadly compound was applied as the previous ointments had been, and the result was the speedy death of the wife and the dangerous illness of two of the children, while the remaining two were in the greatest agony, though not in a precarious condition. It is said all the children will eventually recover.

EXTRAORDINARY FREAK OF A FOX.—A few weeks ago a curious trait in the character of a fox was witnessed in a hay field in Wales. While the haymakers were busily employed at one end of the field, their attention was suddenly drawn to the other, where a fine dog fox was seen to gambol in fearless confidence with a sheep-dog, who had been left the guardian of the workingmen's victuals under the shade of a tree. They were seen to play, like a couple of puppies, in open-mouthed friendship. On the approach of one of the haymakers, (who feared that the amusement might cost him his dinner,) Reynard made off to a neighbouring cover, but in a few minutes returned in the same festive humor to renew his gambols and secure his prize. There can be little doubt that his behavior was one of Master Reynard's cunning dodges to get at the food.

—We find the following in the Columbus papers:

Certificates of incorporation of the Cincinnati National Union Printing and Publishing Co. was filed at the Secretary of State's office. Bartley, S. M. Murphy, S. M. Penn and W. R. Patterson.

—With the opening of the fashionable season, says the New York Post, an epidemic of marriage has set in. The extraordinary activity observable in the great jewelry stores on Broadway, the fancy goods establishments in Maiden Lane, at the milliners' and mantuamaker's shops, and in the dry goods trade, is accounted for by the happy conductors of these places on the ground that matrimonial contracts and costly wedding gifts are the prevailing fashions of the fall.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

(ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS ON FIRST PAGE.)

The Allegheny Soldiers' League—Proposal to Inaugurate a Library—Address to the Public.

A meeting of the Allegheny Soldiers' League was held in Allegheny on Tuesday evening, Adjutant Alex. P. Callow occupying the chair. The committee appointed at a previous meeting to prepare an address to the public in regard to the establishment of a Library and Reading Room, under the management of the League, presented, as their report, the following

ADDRESS:

To the Citizens of Allegheny:—A number of honorably discharged soldiers of your city having survived the conflict of arms, and returned to the more ennobling pursuits of peaceful life have joined themselves together under the title of the "Allegheny City Soldiers' League," for the purpose of perpetuating kindly feelings towards each other as brethren, having battled in a common cause, snared common dangers, rendering the friendship thus contracted more sacred because developed under circumstances of an adverse character. The Soldiers' League is not a partizan organization, and regards only those whose record is a stained and free from dishonor, as worthy to come under its care and protection. The object of the originators of the League, as to its probable future character, independent of its general and avowed object—friendship for each other—was not clearly defined. A series of meetings, however, and a general interchange of opinion suggested the ideas whereby the objects of the League would be more fully carried out, only one of which at this time is proposed to be tested—the other simply alluded to.

The first one contemplated a Library and Reading Room, under the exclusive management of the Soldiers' League, where all soldiers, whether members or otherwise, together with those citizens whose actions showed their sympathies and feelings were in consonance with the soldiers' interests, should meet together, and enjoy the same advantages.

The other suggestion proposed, giving the League a beneficial character, by providing a system to render efficient aid to all deserving members who, from disability contracted in the service, or from any cause may be unable to provide for themselves or families. The same proposition contemplated a relief, so far as was in its power, of soldiers' orphans and widows of deceased soldiers, whose necessities were brought to the notice of the League.

The execution of this idea appears an almost Herculean task, even to the members of the League, but the same patriotism and self-sacrificing spirit manifested by you, in contributing to the support of the soldiers during the war, will not fail to work out the problem when the incidental arrangements are perfected.

In regard to the success of the project, namely: the establishment of a Library and Reading Room, the League authorized the preparation of an address to be submitted to you, setting forth the object contemplated, simply asserting the necessity and fitness of the undertaking, and asking your aid, influence, and co-operation. Such is the object of the present address. The appeal is made in good faith. The soldiers of Allegheny city look back with pride upon the efforts of her citizens in providing for their comfort and attesting to the wants of her soldiery. No labor too great and no money spared to tone down the hardships and alleviate the sufferings of those who perilled all for the success of the common cause. The oft repeated sentiment "that the debt of gratitude to the soldiers cannot be paid too well," is not an idle array of words, devoid of meaning and a dead letter. It lives, and will live forever in the hearts of all those who love their country and their country's defenders. The soldiers composing the League, therefore, make this appeal with a certainty that dispels all discouragements and defies disappointment, the success of the project being looked upon only as a matter of time to make it a fixed fact. If there exists a doubt in the mind of any person as to their ability to contribute to the object, let it be dispelled in this way: While it is desirable that the Library should contain first class, or standard works, and while a contribution of money would be preferred, the League asks and recommends, as being within the power of every one in the city, male or female, young or old, to contribute something to the work proposed. There are few families who are without boo'ks of some kind, which they themselves have read, and while they may have use for them, under ordinary circumstances, a proper regard and estimate of their increased value to those who may never have perused them, would partly reconcile their owners to part with them, for an object which commends itself to their liberality and patriotism. Books received in this way will be recorded in a book provided for that purpose, containing the name of the party and date of its reception. A printed memorandum will be pasted inside exhibiting the same record. Library cases would be a desirable contribution, and the donors receive the warmest thanks of the benefactors. It is desirable that the friends of the soldiers should express their kindness, even in the humblest way, and which would be thankfully received. It is especially desirable that men of influence will lend a willing ear and hand, and assist in giving character to the undertaking in order to show the public, that this project is not spasmodic effort, and that the projectors mean what they say, it is proposed to secure the service of an outside and disinterested party—some person of influence however—to take charge of all funds contributed to this object. This plan is considered the more necessary, because few, if any, of the members of the League are sufficiently prominent citizens, and not generally known. Those contributing to the Library will be considered members, and entitled to all the benefits thereof. Trusting, that this, the first appeal made for your assistance, by the soldiers of your city, will be responded to liberally, and the success of the library being a fixed fact, the whole matter is left to you for your action.

JOSEPH R. OXLEY,
ALEX. P. CALLOW,
JOHN GLENN,
Committee.

The report was received and adopted, and a Finance Committee, consisting of Messrs. John S. Edgar, William Clawson and John M'Henry were appointed to co-operate with the Treasurer to be appointed.

By the following correspondence it will be seen that the League has had the good fortune to secure the services as Treasurer, of His Honor, Mayor Morrison:

ROOMS OF THE ALLEGHENY SOLDIERS' LEAGUE, November 20, 1866.

Hon. John Morrison, Mayor:—At a meeting of the Allegheny Soldiers' League, held last evening, it was resolved to request you to act as Treasurer of the "Library and Reading Room" fund, which we anticipate raising through the contributions of the citizens.

Hoping that you will assume the responsibility of the position, I have the honor to be

Your obedient servant,

J. C. SAMPLE, Cor. Sec'y.

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
ALLEGHENY, Nov. 21, 1866.

J. C. Sample, Esq., Corresponding Secretary of the Soldier's League:

SIR:—Your note of yesterday, honoring me with a request to act as Treasurer of the Library and Reading Room Fund to be raised by the League, was duly received.

In reply, I would say that I cheerfully accept the duties of the position tendered me. Allow me to express my sincere sympathy with the movement you are organizing.

Hoping that I may fulfil satisfactorily the requirements of the position assigned me,

I remain
Your obedient servant,
JOHN MORRISON.

The Winter Edict of the Fickle Goddess.

There is not a head of a family in whose household Demorest's Monthly is an authority, who will not tremble and gasp as he views the fashion plates and reads the commands contained in the Christmas number of that periodical. The plates and patterns of ladies dress, for the coming winter, therein contained, actually bewilder the eye. To heads of families, their number and the evident expensiveness of the actual article will be most suggestive. We quote from the fashion article:

One of the most brilliant features of the present season is the variety of gay colors worn, not only in the house and on dress occasions, but in the streets, especially by young ladies, married or single.

Matrons, of course, select black or warm colors, such as maroons for cloaks, but younger ladies wear blue, claret and purple, embroidered, trimmed with fur, white oak, or chenille fringe, with handsome woolen or poplin dress as to match or contrast in color.

An important cloak is made of purple velvet, lined and quilted with silk, and cut out in deep vandykes all round. The trimming consists of rich tassels, placed both on the points and between them, and bands of black guipure placed lengthwise. A short skirt of purple velvet is vandyked out, over a petticoat of black silk, with a wide pladding, and worn with the cloak, making a costume en suite.

Woolen dresses are made stylish this winter by wearing with them velvet waistbands with small, gored, lappet basques, each point finished with a tassel, and sometimes a tassel placed also between each point. These waistbands fit particularly well over gored dresses, and take away from the look of plainness which some do not like.

The all black or all white bonnets are undoubtedly the handsomest bonnets of the season. White bonnets for reception and evening wear, being profusely ornamented with jet, for visiting, Sabbath, and promenade wear.

And here is something in regard to children's fashions:

The new fashions for children are all convenient and tasteful, and, we are happy to say, warm and comfortable besides. The favorite colors for little girls are scarlet and white, and blue and white. Reversible cloths made with double capes, each scalloped out and bound with the color upon the reversed side are excellent wear for girls of about ten years. The cloth may be light grey, bound with red or blue, and a little collar of grey squirrel would be a very nice little finish. Add to this a hat of grey felt, with scarlet wing, or shors curled plume, and you have a useful and stylish costume for girls who can have but few changes.

Spittoons for Cars.

While persons will use tobacco they will continue to spit on the car floor we suppose. We are glad to find that some means have been found by an inventor to relieve travelers from the liability of getting their garments into puddles of filthy tobacco juice. The invention consists in a novel construction of stationary spittoons designed to be applied to the floors of cars or other vehicles, each spittoon being provided with a lid or cover and discharging-valve, and made capable of easy operation by the foot or hand in such a manner as that, when its lid commences to open and while opening and remaining open, the valve of the spittoon is closed; but when the lid is closed the valve is open to permit of the escape of the saliva and other substances thrown into it, and so that the admission of draughts of air is prevented in both the open and closed conditions of the spittoon lid, and the parts so constructed and arranged as to give the requisite facility for cleaning the spittoon. If the fails to cure the evil, then make the chewers of the weed ride in a car by themselves.

Destroyed by Fire.—Night before last the extensive planing mill of E. Shoemaker & Co., at Sonman Station, Penn's. Railroad, was entirely destroyed by fire. We have received no particulars as to the origin of the fire or the loss sustained.

EARLY TELEGRAMS.

Concentration of Troops at Washington —Circular Issued by the Paymaster General.

NEW YORK, November 21.—A Herald's Washington special says: There are fifteen or twenty thousand troops concentrated in Washington and between that city and Baltimore. Various speculations are abroad as to the intention of concentrating so large a force at the present time.

A circular has been issued by the Paymaster General, under a decision by the Attorney General, directing the payment of the extra bounty to all colored soldiers who were slaves when enlisted.

The World's Washington special says: Major General Slocum, it seems to be conceded by the New York politicians to-day, will be appointed Naval Officer for New York.

Information has reached here that General Sheridan has ordered additional troops to the Rio Grande, but whether with a view to Mexican complications or not is unknown.

By Foreign Mails—Temporal Power of the Pope at an End—Annexation of Russian Territory.

NEW YORK, November 21.—The Herald's foreign correspondence says: The citizens of Florence are quite certain that Italy will have Rome, and that the end of the temporal power of the Pope is just at hand. Italy is not free from danger, however. The financial condition of the kingdom is not at all healthy, and it is alleged that Napoleon is already engaged in an active intrigue for the annexation of Sardinia to France in return for services already rendered, or to be afforded in the future.

Russia has formally annexed the territory of Taschend, in Central Asia, to the Empire.

The Jumel Will Case—Suicide—Fatal Railroad Accident.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The Jumel Will case was on trial before Surrogate Tucker yesterday. The testimony was the same as that given in the trial at Circuit, and on its conclusion the Surrogate rejected the will on the grounds of unsoundness of mind on the part of Madame Jumel.

A Herald Leavenworth special says: Frederick Weed, nephew of Thurlow Weed, late of the Second California Volunteer Cavalry, committed suicide at Salt Lake on the 15th inst.

A World's Boston special says: T. F. Crane, son of Edward Crane, a well known railroad man, was accidentally killed on the train at South Bridge this morning.

From South America—An Anglo-French Mediation.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—A Herald's Valparaiso correspondent says: The preparations for defence are still going on, although nothing has been heard from the Spanish fleet. There is little doubt, however, that peace will be permanently established, as two of the allied powers had consented to an Angio-French mediation, and the Chilian Minister was in consultation with the other Ministers on the subject. The matter would no doubt be definitely settled in a couple of weeks.

Gen. Vickers, of Philadelphia, is to have the contract to build two railroads for the government.

From Mexico.

NEW YORK, November 21.—The Herald's Saltillo, Mexico, correspondence of the 1st says: Northern Mexico was alive with preparations for the attack upon Durango, Lacatecas and San Luis Potosi. The imperialists everywhere were acting on the defensive, and it is believed that they have merely force enough to hold open their line of communication between Mexico City and Vera Cruz until their final departure.

Mejia was alone in command at San Luis Potosi, with Mexican soldiers only, all the foreign troops having left.

Boston Import Trade.

NEW YORK, November 21.—A Tribune Boston special says: The import trade of Boston, this year, will amount to over $100,000,000, adding charges and reckoning the value in currency. Our coasting business has reached a magnitude never before attained, and our receipts by steamers greatly surpass those of any year. The business of Boston this year has reached the highest figure ever known in her commercial history.

VERY LATEST TELEGRAMS.

FROM NEW YORK.

Emigration to Brazil—The Report of the Provost Marshal General.

NEW YORK, November 21.—A communication in the Tribune calls attention to the fact that Irishmen and Germans are being enticed to Brazil under the promise of a free passage. It is supposed that some four hundred of them are to sail on the next mail steamer hence, and that they will be used as recruits for the army.

The report of the Provost Marshal General, which has just appeared, is full of interesting statistics. The total enrollment under the act of March 3d, the year is not given, was in loyal States, 2,254,063 men; not including 1,000,516 then under arms under the bureau; 1,120,691 men were raised at a cost of 56 cents per man, before the bureau was organized, 1,356,506 at a cost of 3401 cents per man. The deserters arrested and returned to the army numbered 76,926. As to desertion the report says:

It appears beyond dispute that the crime of desertion is essentially characteristic of troops from large cities and of the districts which they supply with recruits. The ratio per thousand of deserters to credits throughout the loyal States is 62.51. In the State of New York it rises to 96.06, and in the small States near New York city it is still higher. In New Jersey it is 107.00; in Connecticut, 117.25; in New Hampshire, 112.22. Yet the general rates of New England is but 74.35, the rate of Massachusetts being 66.68; that of Vermont 51.75, and that Maine 43.90. In the West, where large cities are rare, the average rate falls to 45.51.

The Whisky Frauds—A Mutual Protection.

NEW YORK, November 21.—The manner in which the late whisky frauds in Brooklyn was accomplished, appears to have been as follows: A man named Devlin, Deputy under Collector Pratt, Gagers P. B. Tilton, A. F. Phillips and John Devlin, formerly an Assessor of Internal Revenue, agreed with a large number of distillers to the effect that if the said distillers would sell Devlin all their whisky at one dollar fifty cents per gallon, he (Devlin) would protect them in their illicit business against all interference from government officers, and would also guarantee all of said whisky to be regularly inspected by the said Tilton and Phillips; and, furthermore, he threatened all those distillers who refused to sell him their whisky upon the terms aforesaid with seizure. A number of distillers agreed to this and the whisky they made was inspected on the premises prior to delivery to Devlin. Subsequently Devlin prepared a depot on Jehu street, near Plymouth, to which the whisky was sent, and there inspected at the rate of between two and three hundred barrels every morning.

On the morning of the 12th inst., the proceedings at this depot were watched, and from information thus obtained, the seizures as already reported, were made. The whisky barrels which had been inspected have a brand, asserting that the contents had been manufactured prior to September first, and this certificate was given by A. J. Phillips.

The report of the officer making this seizure, says: This investigation has revealed the fact that the distillers of this, the Third District, have formed a kind of mutual protection society as against all other than the local officers.

Parade of the New York Fire Department.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The Second Annual Parade of the Metropolitan Fire Department took place this afternoon. There were thirty four steam fire engines, each with a tender and twelve hook and ladder wagons. Each engine, tender and wagon was drawn by two horses, the former being largely decorated with flags, boquets and wreaths of flowers, while the men, in uniform, marched in sections to the music which accompanied the procession, which made a very attractive appearance.

A Railroad Rumor.

NEW YORK, November 21.—The Herald's Troy dispatch says: It is now alleged that the combinations of the far western railroad party, the Express Company, and Mr. Erastus Corning, which has been formed for the purpose of electing Mr. W. G. Fargo President of the New York Central Railroad, has been made for the purpose of aggrandizing the interests of the American Express Company to the exclusion of the Merchants' Union Express Company, and that in the event of Mr. Fargo's election the whole line of the Merchants' Union Company will be driven from the Central road, thus leaving that line open for the American.

Case of a Reverend Pickpocket.

NEW YORK, November 21.—The examination in the case of the Rev. G. T. Williams, charged with picking the pocket of Mrs. Clara J. Bloomer, of Philadelphia, was up early this morning before Justice Dodge. The testimony was favorable to Mr. Williams. The case was adjourned.

Steamer Ashore.

SAVANNAH, Nov. 21.—The steamship San Jacinto, from New York, is ashore on the oyster bed, near Fort Pinsk. Two tugs and barges have arrived here. Three tugs have been sent to her relief, and the vessel will probably be got off at high tide.

Republican Nomination.

BOSTON, Nov. 21.—The Republicans this evening nominated Otis Norcross for Mayor of Boston, Dr. N. B. Shurtliff is the democratic nominee.

Cable Line Down.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Midnight.—No cable news. Line down at Newfoundland.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede slowly at this point with six feet eight inches in the channel by the Monongahela marks last evening. At Oil City the Allegheny was falling slowly yesterday, with four feet four inches in the channel. The weather continues cloudy and warm with an occasional drizzling rain.

The Echo arrived from Oil City since our last report, and the Peerless cleared for that point last evening.

There has been no arrivals since our last report aside from the regular packets. The Bayard is due from Parkersburgh this morning, and will return again to-day at noon. The Leonora and New State, from Cincinnati, are due here to-day, as is also the Robert Moore, from Portsmouth.

The Argosy cleared for Cincinnati about noon yesterday, with a moderate trip, and the Silver Lake left for the same point in the evening. The latter boat had a fair freight list, although she was not loaded down by any means.

In our notice of the new steamer Glendale, yesterday, we inadvertently omitted to note that the cabin, which, by the way, is very much admired, is the work of Messrs. Bunton, Miller & Co. This fine boat is filling up steadily for St. Louis, and and will be ready to leave on Saturday—so says Capt. Hare, and he ought to know.

The Columbia, Capt. Geo. W. Reed, with Mr. James Russell in the office, is now in turn for Cincinnati and Louisville, and the R. C. Gray having withdrawn from that trade for the present is to take a load of railroad iron to St. Louis. The Columbia is staunch and reliable craft, with excellent accommodations for passengers and plenty of room for freight, and will leave on Saturday, positively. We hope she will receive as she deserves, a good trip.

The America, we understand, has been chartered at New Orleans, to ply on one of the innumerable Southern rivers. She arrived at New Orleans some days since.

Capt. Lytle, of the Camelia, expects to get off for Nashville to-day or to-morrow, and passengers and shippers should act accordingly.

The Glasgow, Capt. Johnston, is the regular "Express" packet for St. Louis to-day, and as she is filling up steadily with both freight and passengers, those who desire to travel or ship on this boat should attend to it at once. Mr. M. J. Stamp has charge of the office.

The Bayard, Capt. Geo. D. Moore, is the regular packet for Parkersburg to-day, leaving promptly at noon.

The Louisville Courier copied with great satisfaction the criticism made the other day by the Cincinnati Commercial reflecting somewhat on Pittsburgh painters and Pittsburgh steamboat painting. Subsequently, the Courier had an article on "low pressure engines," which it took occasion to pronounce the "Dictator" a failure, and the Quickstep the next thing to it result for the Great Republic. The Courier man seems to be wonderfully exercised about Pittsburgh, and especially Pittsburgh boats, but the secret of the whole thing is, he is envious of the great reputation Pittsburgh has attained for boat building. He is indignant at Southerners for patronizing that village, and coming here to have boats built for the southern rivers. Why do they it? Simply, because Pittsburgh turns out a better class of boats than Louisville, and the fact is conceded almost everywhere outside of that place.

The Quickstep and Nora arrived at Cincinnati on Monday, and the former boat together with the Kate Robinson, were advertised to leave there for Pittsburgh on Tuesday. The low water in the Ohio and empty barges passed Louisville on Monday en route for this port, and the Kate Putnam en route from Pittsburgh to St. Louis, passed Evansville the same day.

We clip the following items from the Cincinnati Enquirer, of Tuesday:

The steamer Nora came in from Pittsburgh, and is announced for Arkansas river to-morrow evening, in command of the well-known and popular Captain Andy Frazier, who is favorably known in this trade. The steamer Rose Hambleton was sold yesterday to Capt. John Claycomb for the sum of $12,000. She will look for Arkansas river direct, the correct Mr. Nip Simonton in the office. She is announced for Wednesday at 4 p. m.

A cylindrical boiler, four feet in diameter, with an internal flue, has recently been made in England, with welded joints throughout, not one rivet being used. The plates are 7-16 inch iron, and the boiler was tested without leakage, to a pressure of one hundred and fifty pounds per square inch. Mr. Hack worth a English mechanic, constructed a locomotive boiler, some sixteen years ago, the longitudinal joints of which were welded instead of being riveted.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

WEDNESDAY, November 21, 1866.

The New York stock quotations to-day, as reported by Robinson, McClean & Co., were as follows: Gold, 140¼; 1881's, 113¼; 5-20's old, 108¾; do '65, 109¾; 5-20s, new 108¾; 5-20's old, 108¾; do '65, 109¾; 5-20s, new 108¾; 7-30s, 1st series, 106; second and third, 105¾; Michigan Southern R. R., 85¼; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 86¾; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, 106¼; Erie R. R., 78¼; Wayne Agricultural Company, 47¾; Chicago & Union Telegraph Company, 47¾; Chicago & Rock Island, 105¾.

—Rumors are persistently circulated that the Treasury is selling gold, the indirect official denials to the contrary notwithstanding. The truth, however, appears to be that no one is willing to load up with gold in anticipation of the favorable exhibit of the public finances to be made at the opening of Congress and the possible recommendation in Mr. McCulloch's report of a policy looking to the resumption of specie payments at no very remote period. The bulls, however, are perhaps quite willing that gold should fall to a point at which importers could cover their accumulating indebtedness, as they would then probably operate in conjunction with a demand for gold for export.

—The Secretary of the Treasury has just written a note to a New York house, in which he says: "I regard, as did also my predecessors, all bonds of the United States as payable in coin;" thus, effectually setting at rest all doubts that may have been raised upon this subject. The Secretary adds:

"The bonds that have matured since the suspension of specie payments have been so paid, and I have no doubt the same will be done with all others. This, I understand it to be, the established policy of the government, the Five Twenty bonds of 1862 will either be called in at the expiration of five years from delivery, and paid in coin, or be permitted to run until the government is prepared to pay them in coin.

—The recent decline in the New York stock market, which contributed so much towards weakening prices here, is thus explained in yesterday's Herald:

The decline in railway shares was entirely due to artificial causes, and originated with the leading bulls and bankers, who took every evident disposition on the part of the bears to make a raid upon the market. The bulls thus acted in concert with the bears by selling enough for the latter to create an unusual feeling, and induce weak holders and other outside speculators on the bull side to sell out, this rendering further operations easy, and so enabling the leading bulls to buy back the stocks they had sold at a profit in proportion to the decline. The furious manner in which the bears hammered the market when they saw it yielding under them, exceeded all their former efforts since last January, and the result is that an unusually heavy "short" interest has accumulated, which places the market in a stronger condition for a fresh and rapid rise than it has been in for many months, and there is every indication that the leading bulls will make good use of the opportunity they have created.

—The New York Times says the Western Union Telegraph Company on Saturday last declared a dividend of 2 per cent, payable in January next. This, we presume, must be taken as the cause of the advance in the price of the shares to 90 from 85, to which they fell on the strength of a report that the Company would pass its dividend. If the officers of the Company faithfully represented the case and no dividend to go abroad to favor interested parties in the purchase of the stock at a low price and then immediately after declared a dividend, affording opportunity to the same parties to sell out at a high price, then the action was very reprehensible. There are good reasons, at least in the absence of any company denial, to be known shares, and wherever the fact of such action is known in a bank, a railroad or other company, it should insure a prompt chance of the managers, or such of them as so offend.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

New York Financial Matters.

NEW YORK, November 21.—The money market is more active and firm, at @7 per cent. for call loans. Sterling Exchange, 108¾@109 for gold. Gold lower—opening at 141, declining to 140¾, and closing at 140¾. Government stocks withous decided change. Freights to Liverpool firm and more active. Stocks heavy; Rock Island, 104½; Illinois Scrip, 119; Cleveland Pittsburgh, 84½; North Western, 31¾; N. W. preferred, 58¾; Toledo, 112½; Fort Wayne, 106½; Alton and Terre Haute, 41; A. and T. H. preferred, 70; Milwaukee and St. Paul, 36¼; M. and S. P preferred, 68¾; Chicago and Alton, 107¾; Michigan Southern, 85¾; Michigan Central, 71½; Reading, 113; New York Central, 109¾; Quicksilver, 47; Mariposa, 32¾; Atlantic Mail, 108; U. S. Sixes of '81 Coupons, 113½; Five-twenty Coupons of '62, 108¾; do '65, 109¾; do '65, new issue, 108¾; Ten-forty Coupons, 100; Treasury Seven-thirties, 105¾; Missouri Sixes, 87; Cotton and Mississippi Certificates, 50¾.

The Commercial's money article says: The money market shows a continued tendency toward firmness to-day. There are fewer transactions at 6 per cent, and 7 per cent. is the rate for a large proportion of the loans on stock collaterals. Discounts are firmer; the ruling rate for prime paper is 7@8 per cent, with exceptions at 6 per cent. Gold continues weak. The Bears are depressing the market with the most positive assertions that the Secretary is selling gold, to which he denies that the shadow of truth. This morning a Broad street firm, said to have been long in gold, is reported to have failed upon contracts amounting to $1,000,000, which had the effect of still further depressing the premium. The firmness of the money market has still an unfavorable effect on stocks. This afternoon the amount of transactions show a material falling off, and prices are again ½@¾ lower.

The Post's money article says: Gold is depressed mainly by the failure of a firm, who have been carrying four million dollars of coin. The market was active at 7 per cent. from an early hour to this morning. Call Loans were @@7 at two close this morning, and Discounts were dull at 6@@8. The stock market is dull and hesitating. Governments are steady at inside rates. Railroad shares are irregular and without much improvement. At the close there was a light upward tendency, Northwesters being the most in request. At the regular board the quotations were as follows: N. Y. C. 109¾; Erie 77¾; Reading 113¾; M. S. 82¾; I. C. 113¾; Pittsburgh 85¾; N. W. 31½; do pref. 59¼; Toledo 113¾; R. I. 104¾; Ft. W. and C. 106¾; Ohio 5's 99¾. Foreign Exchange dull. Bills at 60 days on London are quoted 108@108¼; for commom, 107¾@108; for bankers' do at short sight, 109¼@109¾.

There was an active demand for money early in the day, and the market was firm at @7 per cent for call loans, but the banks had to pay the higher rate in a great many cases, in fact the bulk of the new business was at 7 per cent. The market was easier towards the close, however, and could not be quoted over 6 per cent. The advance in the rates of interest will attract a large amount of capital to this point, and the supply of loanable funds will soon be greater than ever. The gold market fell off to 139¾ at the close, owing to several failures among the bull operators. Cash gold was more plenty this afternoon, and 2@3 per cent. was paid for carrying it. There was a regular "bear" movement this afternoon, that the Government had called upon the National Banks for $15,000,000. There is not the slightest truth in this rumor, as the Secretary of the Treasury department have been quite moderate and uniform of late, and not to such an extent as to create any disturbance in the money market. The Secretary proposes disbursing liberally on Treasury warrants, and the currency soon gets back into circulation again.

The stock market was heavy and lower, at the last open board, with an increased pressure to sell generally. C. C., 29¼@29¾; Cumberland, 67@67½; Quicksilver, 86@87; Mariposa, 32½; Preferred, 25@26; W. U. T., 89¾; M. C., 109@110¼; I. C., 108@108½; Erie, 76¾; Reading, 112¾@113; M. S., 82@82½; I. C., 113@113½; Pittsburgh, 85@85½; Toledo, 112¾@113; N. W., 30¾; do. preferred, 72@72½; S. W., 104¾@105. The government securities were heavy and lower this afternoon. The following were the closing quotations: 5-20 Coupons '62, 108¾@108¾; do '64, 109¾@109¾; do '65, 109¾@109¾; do '65, January and July, 108@108¾; 10-40s registered, 100@100¼; Coupons, 100@100¼; August and February 7-30s, 105@105¼; June, 105¼; July, 105@105¼.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
WEDNESDAY, November 21, 1866. }

There is but little that is new to say in regard to the general markets. The demand for Flour, Grain, Provisions, and some other articles we might mention, continues very light, and with but very few round lot operations to report, prices remain without quotable change.

GRAIN—Wheat is quiet and dull but unchanged; No. 1 Spring may be quoted nominally at $2.20. Corn is dull; new crop may be quoted at 55 to 60—Hitchcock, McCreery & Co. sold 500 bush old Ear Corn, in elevator, at $1.02. Barley is dull and unsettled—brewers are offering from $1 to $1.05, though, prime No. 1 Spring would probably bring $1.10. Sale of 1 car Rye at $1.20, and the same car was subsequently sold at $1.28. Oats in good supply and dull; sale of 2 cars, second hand, at 51.

FLOUR—There is no improvement to note in the demand for this article, and while the market is dull and weak, prices have undergone no change. We continue to quote good to choice brands of Spring Wheat at $12.50 to $12.75, and Winter Wheat, $13.00 to $13.50. Rye Flour is unchanged. Sales of buckwheat at $4, in first hands, and $4½, in store.

MILL FEED—There is some inquiry for Middlings, but there is a wide range in prices, as there is but little in quality—sales being reported all the way from $1.80 to $2. Bran is held at 90 cents, on track, and Seconds at $1.40 to $1.50.

APPLES—Continue dull with a supply considerably in excess of the demand, but prices are nominally unchanged—regular sales in store at from $2 to $3 per bbl, as to quality. There is some little inquiry for prime Apples, in good packages, for shipment—at low figures—but we have no sales.

POTATOES—Prime Peach Blows are selling in store at 75 to 80 cts per bushels, and $2.75 per bbl. Jersey Sweets are quoted at $3 to $5.50, per bbl.

BUTTER—Is quiet and unchanged; prime to choice Roll is selling in a regular way at 50 to 53.

EGGS—Have still further advanced in consequence of a very light supply and a brisk demand; we can report sales of 15 bbls at 38.

CHEESE—Is dull but without quotable change. Western Reserve, 15 to 16c; New Hamburg, 13 to 13 for factory, and 20 for Goshen.

SOUGHUM—Is in fair demand and steady but unchanged—sales of good to prime at 65 to 68 cents.

SEEDS—Dull. There is a steady demand for Flaxseed at $3 to $3.10, and little or none offering. Timothy Seed is dull but unchanged and the same can be said of Clover.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
WEDNESDAY, November 21, 1866. }

CRUDE—There are no new characteristics in the Crude market worthy of special notice. The demand continues rather limited, and while holders are disposed sell at current rates, yet they do not seem willing to make any further concessions in order to effect sales. We continue to quote at 19 to 19¼, in bulk and bbls returned, and 15 to 15½, bbls included, according to gravity, time of delivery, etc., etc. Sale of 500 and 200 bbls, both at 19 cts; and three thousand barrels (Virginia oil) to arrive, at 20½c. Buyers are few in number, at present, as refiners generally, seem inclined to hold back and see what turn the market will take within the next week or two.

REFINED—There is no improvement to note in the demand for bonded oil, and, if anything, prices are a shade lower. We now regard 32 to 33c as the outside—delivery in Philadelphia; 33½ to 34 for December, and 34 to 34½ for January and February. It is said, and, we have no doubt, is correct, that a New York exporter bought some fourteen thousand barrels in Philadelphia, on Tuesday, at 32½ to 33, but even this made no perceptible impression on the market, either there or here. Free oil is dull and neglected, but nominally unchanged.

—Since the above was put in type, we have the following sales reported: 1500 bbls to be delivered in Philadelphia within twenty days, seller's option, at 33; and 2000 same delivery and same option, at 32½.

ARRIVALS—The following arrivals of oil were reported to-day:

D. C. Cochran	1300	D. Bushnell	5300
Rose Shubach	900	D. M. Edgerton	2400
Fisher & Bro	491	Strickler & Co	2000
Total			11,091

The Dry Goods Trade.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—There are hopeful signs in the dry goods market this morning, than for the last six weeks before. The extreme low price of almost all kinds of goods, and the steadiness and firmness in the cotton market, gives hopes that prices have at last touched bottom. This is also more apparent from the increased demand for the leading kinds of goods. Buyers are evidently satisfied that goods are as low as they will be at present, and are entering the market for supplies. There is more business exported in the western cities, and orders are quite numerous this morning for considerable quantities of goods. Jobbers prices—Brown sheetings—Amoskeag, A, 21½; Broadway, 20; Howard, A, 19. Bleached shirtings—Lonsdale, 28; James, 24½; Grove Manufacturing Company, 18; Hamilton, 18½; Richmond 17½; Wamsutta, 14½. Brown Drills—Pepperell, 24; Winthrop, 19. Corset Jeans—Laconia, 21; Pepperell, 22.

Cleveland Market.

CLEVELAND, November 20.—Flour—Quiet and unchanged. Sales 125 bbls XX spring at $12.25. Wheat—Dull and unsettled. No sales reported and prices nominal. Corn—Dull and heavy. Held at 97c for No. 1 mixed, but we hear of no sales. Oats—Dull and lower; sales of No. 1 at 56c; 1 do do at 46. Rye—Dull and nominal; held at $1.20; 1,25 for Western. Barley—Quiet and unchanged; held at $1.05@1,10 for No. 1 Canada; 80@90c for State.

Chicago Market.

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—Flour dull. Wheat firm at an advance of 2@3c, closing at $2.09@2,10 for No. 1 and $2.00@2.9 for No. 2.
